

To Campbell, Hamilton, & others.

Congratulations, not con-descend. Before To we are merely respected, at best, & we have to behave all the time or we lose that asset; but after To we are respected, esteemed, admired, revered, & don't have to behave unless we want to. When I first knew you, one of us was hardly even respected.

Mark Twain